Press Release

Access Display Launches BulletinBoards4Sale.com

They're not just for classrooms: niche e-commerce site offers enclosed bulletin boards and cork board displays in a variety of styles, sizes and finishes to fit any space or décor.

Freeport, New York., October 29, 2010

Display fixture leader Access Display Group, Inc. (ADG) has launched BulletinBoards4Sale.com, a new B2B e-commerce website offering a wide selection of custom bulletin boards for corporate offices, schools, restaurants, retailers and government agencies.

Bulletin boards are the ultimate quick-change display solution, but finding the right size and configuration can be challenging. BulletinBoards4Sale.com provides customized solutions, giving customers more control over how they display their information, whether it's the grade school art project, the university message board, company announcements, theatre display case, or today's restaurant menu.

BulletinBoards4Sale.com is the latest niche site to be launched by ADG, a leading designer, manufacturer and distributor of changeable poster displays, sign frames and other signage display frame fixtures.

"Creating an e-commerce website that offers an extensive selection of cork bulletin board displays makes a lot of sense for us given all the customer requests we've had over the years," says Charles Abrams, president of ADG. "If you know you're in the market for a designer bulletin board, BulletinBoards4Sale.com will help you find the right board at the right price to meet your display project needs."

BulletinBoards4Sale.com offers a wide range of enclosed bulletin boards to fit any environment: from indoor corkboards to outdoor bulletin boards. The fixtures come in both wall mounted and free-standing styles in a variety of sizes and finishes. Lighted bulletin boards are also available.

ADG sales and marketing director Craig Abrams explains, "Many of the requests we get are for custom bulletin boards that are not offered by other display companies. For example, someone may be looking for an extra-large fabric covered cork board or an illuminated bulletin board with a header panel. BulletinBoards4Sale.com can help you find a special, customized cork board to meet your needs."
